

PRODUCTIVE,
NON-PARTISAN
DISCUSSIONS ABOUT
THE SCIENCE &
EFFECTS OF
CLIMATE CHANGE

In celebration of our passion for environmental conservation and advocacy, the St. Paul Garden Club invites members and friends to attend one of the most intelligent, balanced introductions to climate change we've heard.

Our featured speaker, Nancy Ylvisaker with the national non-partisan non-profit C-Change Conversations, will share information that has been gathered through extensive consultations with scientists, business leaders and public policy experts.

As gardeners and land stewards – regardless of our political views – there is a lot we can do when we are armed with the kind of information and ideas that will come out of this talk. We look forward to gathering a diverse and passionate audience, to learn from and inspire each other. We hope to engage you in this conversation. Please share this with others who may be interested!
